4 GUYS AND A ROOF SELECTED TO JOIN PREMIER OWENS CORNING™ ROOFING PLATINUM PREFERRED CONTRACTOR PROGRAM

TOLEDO, OH – March 3, 2016 – Toledobased roofing company, 4 Guys And A Roof announced today they have been hand-selected to join the premier Owens Corning™ Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor Network, based upon its commitment to service, installations, reliability, and unparalleled craftsmanship.

Considered one of the most exclusive roofing contractor networks in the roofing industry, Owens Corning™ Platinum Preferred Roofing Contractors represent less than one half percent of the roofing contractors in the entire industry. In order to be associated with the number one recognized brand in the roofing industry and be accepted into the Platinum Certified Network, 4 Guys And A Roof had to meet high standards, including a minimum of five years of experience, a clean profile with the Better Business Bureau, $1MM in general liability insurance, endorsements from distributors, a thorough Dun and Bradstreet background check, having all required state and local licenses, as well as having passed all Owens Corning roofing application testing.

Owens Corning roof application testing ensures 4 Guys And A Roof has a clear understanding of proper shingle installation and the Platinum Promise™. Since Owens Corning Platinum Preferred Contractors are focused on installing the Owens Corning Roofing System, which is more than just shingles, homeowners will have the opportunity to receive a Platinum Protection Roofing System Limited Warranty. This exclusive warranty provides extended product coverage for material defects for as long as the home is owned.

“As a locally owned and operated roofing company with over 17 years of industry experience serving the Greater Toledo Area, 4 Guys And A Roof is both honored and excited to become a member of the elite Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor Program,” said Jamie Wietrzykowski, Owner, 4 Guys And A Roof. “We know from our hundreds of close relationships with homeowners that purchasing a new roof is both a significant decision, and investment. We are very proud to now have this additional layer of commitment to excellence from Owens Corning to bring to our customers.”

“Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor network members are chosen based on their proven market and industry leadership,” said Matt Lawver, Contractor Services Leader, Owens Corning. “This network underscores Owens Corning Roofing’s commitment to providing value within the building materials industry and ensuring our roofing contractors have the tools and business solutions they need to grow their business.”

Not only does Owens Corning stand behind the performance of the roofing products installed, they also stand behind the workmanship of the Platinum Preferred Contractor. Just one more way 4 Guys And A Roof, an Owens Corning Platinum Preferred Contractor can provide a greater peace of mind to its customers, including an extended system warranties that offers lifetime workmanship coverage.
